ABOUT CNLU

Chanakya National Law University (CNLU) was established in 2006 under the patronage of Government of Bihar. The University is accredited by NAAC and is recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and registered with the Bar Council of India (BCI). CNLU has gathered a pan-India reputation as a stellar institution for legal research and education. CNLU strives to provide opportunities for students and research scholars to enhance their knowledge, practical nuances and research skills through conferences, capacity building series, guest lectures on contemporary issues, involving collaborations with central and state statutory bodies, think tanks and research centres, other national and state educational institutions, law firms, trade associations, among others. These academic and legal discourses on contemporary and relevant topics are one of the essential aspects of learning to attain proficiency in the legal field.

ABOUT DPIIT CHAIR & CIRF

The DPIIT-IPR Chair of Chanakya National Law University (CNLU), Patna, was instituted under the visionary initiative of the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT), Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Government of India. The Chair plays a pivotal role in advancing high-quality research, academic discourse, policy formulation, and capacity-building in the domain of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR). It serves as a crucial bridge between academia and policymaking, enabling the development of informed, pragmatic, and future-ready IP frameworks that respond to emerging technological and creative challenges.

The Centre for Innovation, Research and Facilitation (CIRF) stands as one of CNLU's flagship research and development hubs, dedicated to fostering excellence in interdisciplinary scholarship, innovation, and academic advancement. CIRF provides an enabling environment that supports research incubation, entrepreneurial exploration, policy-driven inquiry, and knowledge dissemination across diverse fields of law and allied disciplines. Through workshops, capacity-building initiatives, collaborative research projects, and student-faculty mentorship platforms, the Centre promotes a vibrant ecosystem of creativity and critical inquiry.
